PENNSYLVINA Democrats have declared for Grover Cleveland.

Ir is said up in the Rosetta country that Capt. George Mercer hasn't seen daylight since the August election.

THE last official act of Gov. Buckner was to pardon McLeod Lowe, a life prisoner, sent up from Bracken county for murder.

From the opinions expressed by a number of the Democratic members elect to the Legislature, Mr. Pettit doesn't seem to be in it for Speaker.

A NUMBER of prominent Kentuckians expressed themselves on the day of Gov. Brown's inauguration, that Col. P. Wat Hardin would get there four years hence

Gov. Brown's inagural address was brief and to the point. He starts out with notice to the law breakers that none of them need expect much favor from PRESIDENT Clay in his speech reassembling the Constitutional Convention favored changing the Constitution by making the railroad commissioners elective instead of appointive.

THE Louisville Commercial is a very bright and readible paper. The News don't like its politics, but its a newspaper nevertheless, and it is growing in favor every day in this section.

FLANAGAN, of Texas, has been appoint ed by the President Collector of Customs at El Paso, Texas. It is the same Flana gan, who dealt in coon skins and plug tobacco, in this town prior to the war.

THE NEWS man in his rounds at Frankfort last week discovered that James E. Stone was one of the most popular officials in the ring and is not likely to have any opposition for the position of assistant clerk in the next Legislature.

It is reported that the prospects for a railroad from Fordsville to Hartford are improving. A number of capitlists recently went over the proposed route and and expressed great surprise at the wealth of timber and mineral products

COMMISSIONER of Pensions, Raum, seems to be having a tough old time with this administration. Raum should have been fired long ago if half that has been told of him be true. But brother Harrison and his friends are afraid of Raum and his political influence.

MR. H. B. KINGSOLVING, of Mt. Sterling, is an applicant for the appointment of Railroad Commissioner under Gov. Brown. Mr. Kingsolving is originally from Hartford, Ky., but has been long enough in the Blue grass to feel that he should be numbered among the great.

In these times of shaky banks and de faulting cashiers, we are proud to say that none stand higher than do our own two banks in this county. They are among the solid institutions of the state and it's a solid comfort in knowing this, whether a fellow has any money in them or not.

THE Constitutional Convention reas sembled at Frankfort last week to revise that instrument which the people adopted at August, and to insert such gramatical corrections as will be found necessary. It is not known how long the convention will be in session, but possibly not but a few weeks.

THE judges of the Court of Appeals and Superior Court will resume their duties at Frankfort this week after a two month's vacation. These pillars of the law are to be congratulated on beingable to get a two months outing a year, and a salary of $5,000 each. How many of us would be glad to get the $5,000 a year and say nothing about a two month's

WE can assure our esteemed contemporary the Louisville Critic, that we meant to cast no reflections upon the character and purity of ex-Gov. Buckner as a man and a Democrat, when we said there were other men in this district we preferred for Congress to him. We still say that there are a number of men in the district who would represent us equally as well as the ex-Governor.

Kentucky politics to-day, and it is generally conceded that his appointment is the best one the Governor has made. While he may not have the depth of V. G. HABBAGE thought and the extensive learning possessed by some, yet his views upon state matters generally are considered sound and are freely courted. Ten years experience in the public affairs of his state has made him prominent and widely known, and he possesses a host of friends. We congratulate the General on his success, and feel assured that he will make a valuable state official.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. The New Adjutant General.

[Owensboro Inquirer.] Capt. Jack Gross will make an indus trious and splendid Adjutant General. (Hartford Herald,)

General Jack Gross is a former Ohio county man, and has always been a reader and friend to the Herald, which now joins his numerous friends in this district in congratulations that he is to be Gov. Brown's "man of war."

[Carlisle Mecrury.] Capt. Jack Gross, the new Adjutant General, is one of the truest men in Kentucky; generous to a fault and the lover of friends. He served through the war in the "Orphan Brigade," and was one of the bravest and best of soldiers, as he is now citizen and friend.

(Owensboro Messenger.) The Bowling Green Times is well pleased with all of Governor Brown's cabinet save the Adjutant General. The secret of the Times' displeasure at this appointment may lie in the fact that it is disappointed at the failure of a most estimable Bowling Green gentleman to get this appointment. Jack Gross is not much for style, but he is businesslike, thorough and ambitious. He managed the United States Marshal's office with consummate skill, and it is safe to predict that he will be popular with the State militia and vastly improve the service.
